16                   STATEMENT OF JURISDICTION

17                   This is an appeal from a judgment of the United 18                   States District Court for the Southern District of California, 19                   adjudging appellant guilty of both counts of a two-count 20                   indictment (set out verbatim in Appendix A), charging a 21                   violation of Title 21, U.S.C., §176(a) (Clerk's Transcript, 22                   pp. 2, 44; Reporter's Transcript, p. 227). References to the 23                   Clerk's Transcript hereinafter will be designated C.T., and 24                   references to the Reporter's Transcript hereinafter will be 25                   designated R.T.

26                   Judgment was imposed on February 27, 1967, whereby appellant was committed to the custody of the Attorney General for a period of 8 years on counts One and Two, said

1 sentences to run concurrently (C.T., p. 45). On the same
2 date, a timely Notice of Appeal was filed (C.T., p. 45-A).

3 The District Court had jurisdiction pursuant to the 4 provisions of Title 18, U.S.C., §3231. This Court has 5 jurisdiction to entertain the instant appeal from the judgment
6 under Sections 1291 and 1294, Title 28, U.S.C., and Rules 37
7 and 39 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure (Title 18, 8 U.S.C.).

9 II.

10 STATEMENT OF THE CASE

11 An indictment was returned against appellant by the 12 grand jury for the United States District Court, Southern 13 District of California, which indictment was filed November 9, 14 1966 (C.T., pp.2-3; Appendix A). The indictment was in two 15 counts. Count One charged appellant and his wife with aiding 16 and abetting the importation of approximately 198 pounds of 17 marijuana. Count Two charged them with aiding and abetting
18 the transportation and concealment of approximately 198 pounds 19 of marijuana. Both charges were alleged to have been in 20 violation of Title 21, U.S.C., §176(a), and Title 18, U.S.C., 21 §2. Upon arraignment, appellant and Mrs. Lannom entered 22 pleas of not guilty to both counts. Thereafter, a Motion for 23 Severance and Separate Trial of the two defendants was granted 24 (C.T., p. 29; R.T., p. 11). The following day trial of 25 appellant was commenced before the Honorable Fred Kunzel on 26 January 24, 1967 (R.T., p. 29), which trial resulted in a

1 finding of guilty as to appellant on both counts (C.T., p. 44; 2 R.T., p. 227).

3 Counsel for appellant moved the Court to enter a 4 judgment of acquittal as to both counts, which motions were 5 denied (R.T., pp. 182, 228). In argument on these motions, 6 counsel for appellant at trial urged that the evidence adduced 7 by the government depended entirely on the testimony of an 8 accomplice (R.T., pp. 169-182). In addition to urging this 9 ground as a basis for a judgment of acquittal, instructions 10 were proposed by the defense which, in effect, requested that 11 the jury be advised that appellant could not be convicted on 12 the uncorroborated testimony of an accomplice (C.T., pp. 33-40; 13 R.T., pp. 185-188). These requested instructions are set out 14 verbatim in Appendices C-1 through C-8.

15 The defense also requested an instruction to the 16 effect that a witness available to the prosecution to maintain 17 its burden of proof, which witness the prosecution does not 18 produce, is presumed one who would testify against the 19 government (R.T., pp. 198-199; C.T., p. 32; Appendix B). In 20 support of this requested instruction, evidence was offered 21 that persons who actually accompanied Mougey to Tijuana, and 22 one of these persons (an ex-wife) who was actually in the car
23 at the time Mougey imported the marijuana, were available 24 during the course of the trial but had not been called by 25 the United States Attorney (R.T., pp. 202-205).

III.

SPECIFICATION OF ERRORS

1. Prejudicial error resulted from the trial court's refusal to give a requested instruction that failure of the prosecution to call witnesses available to maintain its burden of proof gave rise to a presumption that these witnesses would testify against the government.

2. Appellant was prejudiced by the trial court's failure to give requested instructions that he could not be convicted on the uncorroborated testimony of an accomplice.

IV.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

William Mougey testified that in April, 1966, he was introduced to appellant, who was identified as Don the Barber (R.T., p. 34). On April 8, Mougey, Ed Herreras, appellant, appellant's wife, and another girl, travelled from Los Angeles to Tijuana (R.T., pp. 39-40). On the trip from Los Angeles, appellant received a speeding citation, which was confirmed by the citing officer (R.T., pp. 41, 123). After arriving in Tijuana, Mougey stated that appellant departed and subsequently re-met the group, at which time he, Mougey, was taken to a side street in Tijuana where a vehicle was pointed out (R.T., p. 41). This vehicle was a 1957 Chevrolet which Mougey subsequently drove to the Los Angeles area, accompanied by a girl companion who had come down with the group from Los Angeles (R.T., pp. 41-42). After returning to the Los Angeles

1 area, the party spent the night at appellant's home (R.T., 2 p. 42). There is some discrepancy in Mougey's testimony as 3 to who spent the night and the order of departure, but Mougey 4 stated that he eventually received $500.00 for driving the 5 vehicle, which sums were shared with Ed Herreras and the girl
6 who accompanied him although he was uncertain as to the method
7 of payment to him and his payment to Herreras and the girl
8 companion (R.T., pp. 41-42, 58-60). In any event, Mougey 9 stated that he expressed a desire to make additional trips and 10 purportedly initiated further contact with appellant (R.T., 11 pp. 41-42). There was no showing that any marijuana was 12 involved in the first trip (R.T., p. 87).

13 According to Mougey, the events which immediately 14 preceded his arrest commenced with his visiting a bar in 15 Van Nuys, California, known as Pappy's, where he proceeded to 16 drink a sufficient amount that he attributed convenient lack 17 of recollection at trial to alcoholic intake (R.T., pp. 85-86).
18 Mougey was purportedly to meet Ed Herreras but this individual 19 failed to come to the bar where Mougey was drinking (R.T., 20 pp. 44, 105). Mougey therefore made calls to appellant which 21 the witness states culminated in his being given instructions 22 to return to Tijuana and pick up the same car he had driven 23 from Tijuana on April 8 (R.T., pp. 44, 86). Despite his 24 purported alcoholic stupor, Mougey testified that he was able 25 to enlist the aid of a sister and brother-in-law, John and 26 Erica Burnham, and an ex-wife (Kathy), to whom he owed

1 support (R.T., pp. 86-89). After some shuffling of vehicles
2 and children, including Mougey's driving despite a convenient 3 alcoholic blackout of details, the group, consisting of 4 Mougey, his wife, his sister and brother-in-law departed for 5 Tijuana, the brother-in-law, John Burnham, driving a vehicle
6 belonging to the ex-Mrs. Mougey's current husband (R.T., 7 pp. 88-92).

8 After arriving in Tijuana, the group proceeded 9 directly to a motel near the Caliente racetrack where Mougey 10 entered the vehicle he had driven to Los Angeles on a previous 11 occasion, and the group departed (R.T., pp. 44, 101-102).

12 After stopping to clean the windshield, Mougey asked his ex-
13 wife to accompany him in the Chevrolet and she consented
14 (R.T., p. 103). Gas was purchased in Tijuana and Mougey
15 drove to the border, followed by Burnham in the Oldsmobile
16 (R.T., pp. 103-104). Upon arrival at the border, the 1957 17 Chevrolet was searched by customs officers and approximately 18 198 pounds of marijuana removed therefrom (R.T., pp. 125-129, 19 154). The Burnhams, although immediately behind Mougey and 20 his ex-wife, were apparently not stopped (R.T., pp. 52, 54).
21 The government's witness admitted giving the customs officers
22 a fictitious story and in fact took them to the Los Angeles
23 area where the car was purportedly to be picked up (R.T., 24 pp. 95-96).

1 After being arrested, Mougey was released on bail, the 2 premium for which, according to bondswoman Juana Martinez
3 Goldstein, had been in part supplied by appellant (R.T., p.149).
4 Mougey stated that after being released on bail, he contacted 5 appellant and requested a meeting at a bar known as the 6 Sir Knight (R.T., pp. 47-50). According to Mougey, this 7 meeting culminated in his being beaten up by appellant and 8 other persons, although a Los Angeles police officer, who saw 9 Mougey almost immediately after the purported beating, failed 10 to notice any evidence of physical abuse (R.T., pp. 48-50, 98, 11 143-145).

12 Mougey and his wife were indicted for a charge 13 involving the 198 pounds of marijuana, and were subsequently 14 charged in another indictment, along with John and Erica 15 Burnham, with a violation of the Federal law in connection 16 with 198 pounds of marijuana alleged to have occurred on 17 April 22, 1966 (R.T., pp. 51, 203).

18 The government produced two witnesses, Lynn Drake and 19 Glen Stewart, who testified that appellant was present when 20 the 1957 Chevrolet had been purchased in the Los Angeles
21 area (R.T., pp. 115-119, 162-168). Although the record 22 established that John Burnham, Erica Burnham and the ex-23 Mrs. Mougey were present during the initial stages of the 24 trial, nevertheless the government did not offer these persons 25 as witnesses (R.T., pp. 54-55, 198-203, 205).

1 V.

2 ARGUMENT

3 A. PREJUDICIAL ERROR RESULTED FROM THE TRIAL COURT'S 4 REFUSAL TO GIVE A REQUESTED INSTRUCTION THAT 5 FAILURE OF THE PROSECUTION TO CALL WITNESSES
6 AVAILABLE TO MAINTAIN ITS BURDEN OF PROOF GAVE 7 RISE TO A PRESUMPTION THAT THESE WITNESSES WOULD 8 TESTIFY AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT.

9 The instruction which counsel for appellant at trial
10 proposed is set out verbatim in Appendix B hereto, and can 11 be found on page 32 of the Clerk's Transcript. As noted in 12 the very requested instruction itself, the proposed language
13 was an exact quote from the opinion of this Court in Yaw v.
14 United States, 228 F.2d 382 (9th Cir. 1958). This doctrine, 15 of course, is not one which was originated by this Court, nor 16 is it a doctrine which dates only to 1958. In fact as early 17 as 1893, the Supreme Court of the United States recognized 18 the principle:

19 "The rule even in criminal cases is that if a 20 party has it peculiarly within his power to 21 produce witnesses whose testimony would elucidate 22 the transaction, the fact that he does not do it 23 creates the presumption that the testimony, if 24 produced, would be unfavorable."

25 Graves v. United States, 150 U.S. 118, 121 (1893).

26 See also: Scanlon v. United States, 223 F.2d 382, 391-2 (1st Cir. 1955) in connection with a prosecutor's comment on defendant's failure to produce witnesses.

United States v. Jackson, 257 F.2d 41, 43-44 (3rd Cir. 1958) concerning a court's refusal to allow

1 counsel for an accused to comment on the government's failure
2 to produce material witnesses.

3         It should be noted that in the instant case, the 4 witnesses to whom reference is herein made were not simply 5 strangers who observed portions of the transaction culminating 6 in Mougey's arrest at the border. All of those persons who 7 were present at the initial stages of the trial, as the record 8 demonstrates, were actual participants who eventually were 9 charged with the very offense of which appellant stands 10 convicted. In fact, the ex-Mrs. Mougey was a passenger in the 11 very vehicle containing the marijuana. Under these circum-
12 stances, therefore, it is submitted that a requested instruction 13 as offered was entirely appropriate.

14         Compare: Bradford v. United States, 271 F.2d 58, at 15 page 65 (9th Cir. 1959). The very point which the Court in 16 the Bradford decision holds rendered the requested instruction
17 on failure to produce witnesses inappropriate is not applicable 18 to the instant case. As noted in the Bradford opinion, the 19 witness to which reference was made was not present at any 20 occasion when narcotics were transferred, purchased, et cetera.
21 In contrast to that situation, the instant case demonstrates 22 that the ex- Mrs. Mougey and John Burnham were the sine quo non 23 so far as Mougey being able to get to the vehicle containing 24 the marijuana. It is submitted, therefore, that appellant was 25 absolutely entitled to the requested instruction so far as 26 these witnesses are concerned.

1 B. APPELLANT WAS PREJUDICED BY THE TRIAL COURT'S 2 FAILURE TO GIVE REQUESTED INSTRUCTIONS THAT HE 3 COULD NOT BE CONVICTED ON THE UNCORROBORATED
4 TESTIMONY OF AN ACCOMPLICE.

5 Appellant is not unmindful of this Court's opinion in 6 Cheadle v. United States, 370 F.2d 314 (9th Cir., Dec.27,1966) 7 decided a short time prior to commencement of the trial from 8 which appeal is herein sought. That opinion, of course, 9 reiterated a rule adhered to in this Circuit for a substantial 10 period of time to the effect that a conviction may be predicated 11 solely on the uncorroborated testimony of an accomplice.

12 See also: Quiles v. United States, 344 F.2d 490, 13 494 (9th Cir. 1965), and Doherty v. United States, 230 F.2d 605
14 (9th Cir. 1965), explicitly holding that the California rule 15 concerning corroboration was not applicable.

16 Appellant respectfully requests that the Court re-17 evaluate the rules previously announced in connection with 18 testimony of accomplices. The dangers inherent in the rule 19 as it presently exists are obvious. (See: Ramirez v. United 20 States, 363 F.2d 33, 34 [9th Cir. 1966]). The instant appeal 21 actually puts into bold relief the inappropriateness of 22 allowing the guilt or innocence of another individual to 23 depend entirely on evidence of a coparticipant. Not only was 24 William Mougey's future at stake but obviously that of his ex-25 wife and Mr. and Mrs. Burnham. The future security of not 26 only the witness Mougey but three persons very close to him certainly depended on his placing primary responsibility for

1 the marijuana importing on someone else.

2 In these circumstances, therefore, it is submitted
3 that the trier of fact should be instructed that evidence 4 independent of such an interested party's testimony must 5 point toward knowing participation by the defendant. If 6 this be true, then defense requested instructions numbers 2 7 through 9 should have been given, and the failure to so give 8 constituted prejudicial error.

Yaw v. United States, 228 F.2d 382 (9th Cir.1958).

REQUESTED BY PETER J. HUGHES
ATTORNEY FOR DEFENDANT

1                                    APPENDIX C-1

2 DEFENDANT'S REQUESTED INSTRUCTION NO. 2

3            It is the law that the testimony of an accomplice 4 ought to be viewed with distrust.

5 It is specifically requested that the foregoing instruction
6 be given in lieu and in place of CALJIC 829.

7                                    APPENDIX C-2

8 DEFENDANT'S REQUESTED INSTRUCTION NO. 3

9            A conviction may not be had upon the testimony of an 10 accomplice unless it be corroborated by such other evidence 11 as shall tend to connect the defendant with the commission of 12 the offense.

13            (Exact quote of first paragraph CALJIC 821.)

14                                    APPENDIX C-3

15 DEFENDANT'S REQUESTED INSTRUCTION NO. 4

16            Such corroborating evidence must not only connect him 17 with the crime with which he is charged, but it must do so 18 without aid or direction from the testimony of the accomplice 19 (or accomplices) whose testimony is to be corroborated.

20                                    APPENDIX C-4

21 DEFENDANT'S REQUESTED INSTRUCTION NO. 5

22            Corroborative evidence is additional evidence to the 23 same point and although it need not be sufficient standing alone 24 to support a conviction, it must relate to some act or fact 25 which is an element of the offense with which the defendant 26 is charged. It must, in and of itself and independent of the 1 evidence which it supports, fairly and logically tend to 2 connect the defendant with the commission of the alleged 3 offense. Corroborative evidence may consist of other evidence 4 of circumstances, the testimony of a witness other than an 5 accomplice, or the testimony or admissions, if any, of the 6 defendant.

7 In determining whether an accomplice has been 8 corroborated you must first assume the testimony of the 9 accomplice to be removed from the case. You must then 10 determine whether there is any remaining evidence which tends 11 to connect the defendant with the commission of the offense.
12 If there is none you must acquit the defendant. If there is 13 such evidence then his testimony is corroborated. But before 14 you may convict the defendant you must find from all the 15 evidence that it carries the convincing force required by law.

16 CALJIC 822 (1962 Revision).

18 DEFENDANT'S REQUESTED INSTRUCTION NO. 6

19 There can be no question that it is insufficient 20 corroboration merely to connect a defendant with the 21 accomplice or other persons participating in the crime, but 22 evidence independent of the testimony of the accomplice must 23 tend to connect a defendant with the crime itself, and not 24 simply with its perpetrators. It is not with the person who 25 commits the offense that the connection must be had but with 26 the commission of the crime itself.

1                                    APPENDIX C-6

2    DEFENDANT'S REQUESTED INSTRUCTION NO. 7

3                    Association with a criminal is not to be equated with 4    connection with the crime so far as the requirement of 5    independent evidence tending to connect defendant with the 6    commission of an offense, as required by the accomplice 7    corroboration rule.

8                    " ' "It is necessary that the evidence corroborating 9    an accomplice shall connect or tend to connect the 10   defendant with the commission of the crime. Cor-11   roborative evidence is insufficient where it merely 12   casts a grave suspicion upon the accused. It must 13   not only show the commission of the offense and the 14   circumstances thereof, but must also implicate the 15   accused in it..." ' "

16                   People v. Robinson, 61 A.C. 413, 439.

17                                    APPENDIX C-7

18    DEFENDANT'S REQUESTED INSTRUCTION NO. 8

19                    An accomplice is one who is liable to prosecution 20    for the identical offense charged against the defendant on 21    trial. To render a person an accomplice, he, in some manner, 22    knowingly and with criminal intent must have aided, advised, 23    encouraged or participated in the commission of the criminal 24    act charged.

25                                    APPENDIX C-8

26    DEFENDANT'S REQUESTED INSTRUCTION NO. 9

                  Under the definition of an accomplice I instruct you that as a matter of law the witness, William Mougey, is an accomplice, and the rules applicable to an accomplice must be applied to his testimony.
